

Join WoW Members for a Night at the Theater!

See Timon of Athens on Tuesday, Feb 15, 2010 at 7 pm

at The Public Theater
425 Lafayette Street

Timon of Athens is Shakespeare's play about money and its potential to corrupt human relationships. The Public Theater has produced a new interpretation of this classic play featuring Richard Thomas as Timon. A brief discussion will follow on morality.

WoW cultural events are part of the WoW social activities that help promote the participation of women in science by establishing strong networks of support and exchange of various academic and personal issues that strengthen connections and raise awareness of key issues to help support women in their studies and retain them in the sciences.

All Are Welcome.